

Nassau County Gator Club and Amelia Shotgun Sports LLC

Introduces:

“1st Annual Great Gator Shootout”

Gators are asking for your Sponsorship in raising scholarship funds for Nassau County high school graduates attending the University of Florida...See Sponsorships below!

The “Great Gator Shootout” is a sporting clays shooting competition. The Event will be held on September 13, 2008 (Saturday) at the Amelia Shotgun Sports Club, Yulee, Florida. The first flight starts at 9:00 A.M.; lunch will be included. Up to 300 shooters from Florida and the southeast are expected to compete in this event. Winners of the competition will be recognized with trophies following the shootout.

A goal of this tournament is to raise scholarship funds for graduates of Nassau County high schools, who have been selected for admission to the University of Florida. This event is an investment in our community. We believe this tournament will develop as a prestigious annual shooting competition that will serve for economic development and provide an annual fund raiser for our Nassau County students.

YOUR SUPPORT IS ESSENTIAL! As an ardent supporter of the Gators and or sporting clays shooting competition, we are confident that you will want to be a part of this unique event! Minimum sponsorship levels are as follows:

- Total Event$4,000
- Shooting Clays $2,000
- Food and Beverage $1500
- Individual Scholarship $500
- Exclusive Shooting Station $300
- Shared Shooting Station $100-$200
- Any other donations of cash, merchandise,
